角館

— KAKUNODATE —

① 樺細工伝承館
(Cherry Bark Woodcraft Museum)

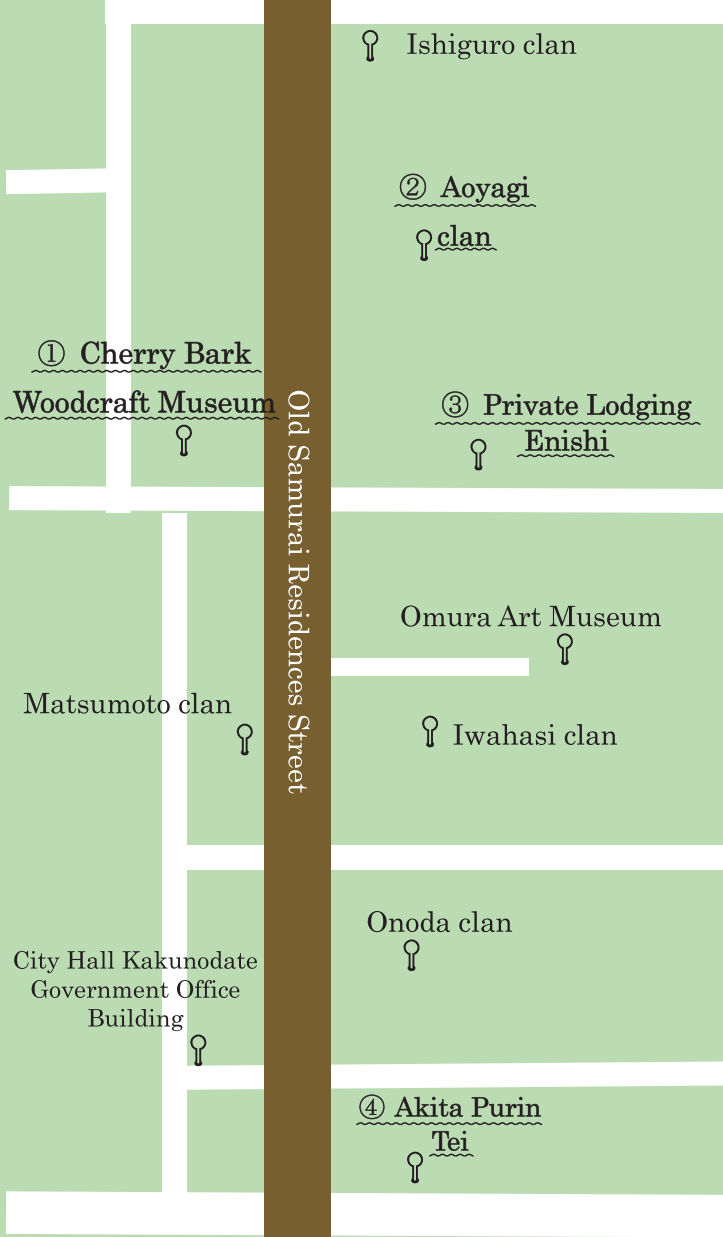

A variety of masterpieces of Kabazaiku craftsmanship with a 230-year tradition are on display. There is also an exhibition room for crafts, culture, and historical materials, a demonstration of Kabazaiku production, a product exhibition room, a coffee shop, and a store. Visitors can actually experience the history of Kakunodate and Kabazaiku.

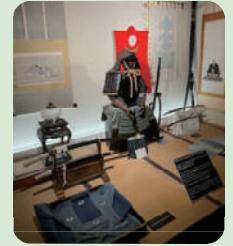

③ あきたプリン亭 (Akita Purin Tei)

In spring, you can enjoy Sakura Pudding with the image of weeping cherry blossoms in Kakunodate. There is also Buke Yashiki Pudding with the image of samurai residences, and seasonal specials that can be enjoyed depending on the time of year. Please enjoy the scenery of Kakunodate while eating our puddings. We are waiting for you!

② 青柳家 (Aoyagi clan)

The Aoyagi Family House is the representative samurai residence of Kakunodate. About 30,000 valuable items, including weapons and swords, are on display. There is also a corner where visitors can actually hold swords and spears in their hands, try on helmets, and much more for free. Kimono rentals and armor wearing are also available for a fee, so come and try it for yourself.

④ 民泊 縁 (Private Lodging Enishi)

Our sales manager, the Akita dog "Soo-chan" and his wife "Fujiko" will welcome you. Spending time in a minpaku hotel with a cute Akita dog will be a wonderful and heartwarming time. If you want to get in touch with Akita dogs, or if you are looking for healing on your trip, please visit Minpaku Enishi.
